DEFINITIONS . . .

COST OF ATTENDANCE.—The term “cost of attendance” means the average annual cost of tuition and fees, room and board, books, supplies, and transportation for an institution of higher education for a full-time, first-time, undergraduate student enrolled in the institution.

NET PRICE.—The term “net price” means the average yearly price actually charged to a full-time, first-time, undergraduate student receiving student aid at an institution of higher education after deducting such aid, which price shall be determined by calculating the difference between—

- (A) the institution’s cost of attendance for the year for which the determination is made; and
- (B) the quotient of—
 - (i) the total amount of need-based grant aid and merit-based grant aid from Federal State, and institutional sources, provided to such students enrolled in the institution for such year; and
 - (ii) the total number of such students receiving such need-based grant aid or merit-based grant aid for such year.

TUITION AND FEES - The term “tuition and fees” means the average annual cost of tuition and fees for an institution of higher education for a full-time, first-time undergraduate student enrolled in the institution.

INCOME CATEGORIES - IN GENERAL, for the purposes of reporting the information required, the following income categories shall apply for students who received Federal student financial aid under Title IV:

- (i) $0-30,000;
- (ii) $30,001-48,000;
- (iii) $48,001-75,000;
- (iv) $75,001-110,000; and
- (v) $110,001 and more.

The Secretary may adjust the income categories listed using the Consumer Price Index if the Secretary determines such adjustment is necessary.*
